Reference our 24 June talk. Attached please find the suggested letter for the DCI to send to the Secretary of Defense, Army, Navy and Air to correct the impression held in some quarters that CIA does little briefing at the key Department of Defense schools. From personal observation of [ ] briefings on CIA's organization and role in the intelligence community, I am convinced we have produced an orientation formula that definitely enhances harmonious relationships with other departments of the Government. It would be advantageous to CIA for Paul to expand his briefing activities.
